

PROFESSIONAL BOUNDARIES

Aims to: To develop an understanding of what professional boundaries are and how to put them into practice when supporting service users and patients.

Objectives: To enable you to:-

- Define what professional boundaries are
- Explain why it is important to have professional boundaries
- Identify related policy and guidance
- Analyse current practice and consider ways of developing and improving your performance

Facilitator: Karen Littleford, Shropshire Partners in Care

Dates and locations

- 25 January 2012 – Barnabas Centre, Longden Coleham 9:30 to 1:00 pm
- 29 March 2012 - Shrewsbury Training & Development Centre, Monkmoor 1:00 to 4:30 pm
- 22 May 2012 – Grange Learning Centre, Mount Pleasant Rd, Shrewsbury 9:30 to 1:00 pm
- 3 July 2012 – Shropshire Wildlife Trust, Shrewsbury, 1:00 to 4:30 pm

Appropriate for: Workers in Health, Housing and Social Care Settings

This training contributes to underpinning knowledge for Qualification Credit Framework QCF, Continuing Professional Development CPD and Knowledge and Skills Framework KSF (Health)

Enquiries/application forms to: Sue Iley, Joint Training Team, Bourne House, Radbrook Complex, Shrewsbury, SY3 9BL. (01743 254731)

COST - Shropshire and Telford & Wrekin

- £20 Voluntary sector
- £25 Independent, Housing, Acute Hospital, T&W Council, Shropshire Council (not Assessment & Eligibility)
- £60 Out of county organisations

No charge (under review)

Service users, family carers and unpaid volunteers living in Shropshire (not Telford and Wrekin). Staff from Shropshire Council Assessment & Eligibility, Shropshire Community Health NHS Trust, South Staffs & Shropshire NHS Foundation Trust based in Shropshire & Telford & Wrekin.